Introduction

The Bartley Collection consists of trade cards, letterheads, postal envelopes, business advertisements, and books about Springfield and by local authors. The collection has 556 files that are contained in 9 boxes. The collection is arranged into four series with one sub-series as follows:

Series 1: Books
Series 2: Postal envelopes and letterheads
Series 3: Clark County & Springfield History
Series 4: Trade Cards
Series 4b: Flower Catalogues

There are no restrictions on the use of this collection.
Scope & Content

This collection consists of Springfield advertising media, local postmarks, trade cards, and books which includes Springfield High School Heralds, Springfield High School 1948 yearbook, Clark County directories beginning in 1902, and Elliot Blaine Henderson poetry books. The Clark County & Springfield History Series is made up of souvenir brochures, menus, booklets, newspaper articles, and photographs.

Series 1 consists of books. In box 1, there are 3 records of music. If there were more than one of the same type of book (such is the case with the Springfield High School Herald), they were put into chronological order for easy access. In this series, there is a box of 7 books by Elliot Blaine Henderson, a prominent local African-American poet. There are 88 files housed in 5 boxes in this series.

Series 2 consists of postal marks and letterheads. The letterheads are arranged alphabetically by company name. The postal marks are arranged by primary town or village, although many of the envelopes have additional postal marks, and then by date. Any envelopes that had no mark or an unclear mark were placed at the end of each village or town. There are 137 files in this series.

Series 3 contains advertising media, arranged in alphabetical order. There are 59 files in 2 different boxes.

Series 4 is the trade cards, advertisements, and flower catalogues. The flower catalogues were deemed important and different enough to be a sub-category, but with enough of the same properties of advertising to be put into series 4. It is designated series 4b. In series 4 there are 209 files and in 4b there are 6 files.

The box of trade cards includes the guest book, storyboards, and design lay-out for the 1988 Exhibit of the Bartley Collection. There are 5 files.
