7	Letter from Dr. Barton to Dr. and Mrs. Eipper

The Eipper Family was a well-known prominent Springfield family. Dr. Karl F. Eipper was an optometrist. Marjorie's mother was Millie Sinclair Eipper.

Letters date from when Marjorie entered the Ward-Belmont School in Chattanooga, Tennessee. The letters are filled with school news about classes and grades, roommates, loneliness for home, and school activities. The last letter is a congratulatory letter from vice-president Barton to Marjorie's parents on her graduation from school.
