

ARCHITECTURAL CATEGORY
BRIDGES COLLECTION

| File | Description   |
|------|---|
| 1    | “Clark County Engineer’s Office Builds Bridges”                             |
| 2    | N. Fountain Bridge over Buck Creek  |
| 3    | Home Road bridge over New York Central tracks                               |
| 4    | North Limestone bridge over Buck Creek                                      |
| 5    | Lower Valley Pike bridge  |
| 6    | South Lowry bridge over Pennsylvania RR tracks                              |
| 7    | Mad River bridge on Route 70  |
| 8    | Ohio 72 by-pass bridge  |
| 9    | Plum Street bridge over Buck Creek  |
| 10   | Snyder Park Memorial bridge   |
| 11   | Spangler bridge over Mad River  |
| 12   | Tremont City bridge   |
| 13   | Twin arch bridge over Mud Run on Fairfield Pike                             |
| 14   | Wittenberg Ave. bridge over Cliff Park Drive                                |
| 15   | List of Clark County covered bridges  |
| 16   | Clark County covered bridges- locations & maps                              |
| 17   | “News from the Surrounding Area: Once There Were 34, now 7 Covered Bridges” |
| 18   | Buck Creek covered bridge on Route 40                                       |
| 19   | Covered bridge relocated to Glen Helen                                      |
| 20   | Covered bridge on U. S. 40 over Mad River                                   |
| 21   | Covered bridge at Snyderville over Mad River                                |
| 22   | Harmony bridge on the National Road over Beaver Creek                       |
| 23   | Upon Receiving Model of Mad River Bridge – given by Orton Rust              |
| 24   | Letter to editor of Columbus Dispatch from A. L. Slager on covered bridges  |
| 25   | Robert W. Smith- covered bridge designer                                    |
| 26   | “Ohio Still Has About 250 Covered Bridges”                                  |
| 27   | Southern Ohio Covered Bridge Association, Inc                               |
| 28   | Buckeye Covered Bridges   |
| 29   | Ohio Covered Bridges  |
| 30   | The Famous Y Bridge at Zanesville, Ohio                                     |

