

Index to Springfield Daily News Special Section of the Newspaper for the Springfield Sesquicentennial on September 30, 1951

Page	Title/Description	Photos?
1C	City's Sesquicentennial to be Marked Friday; Views of Springfield in 1832, 1851, and 1951.	Yes
1C	Memorial Hall to Be Scene of Program - Friday at 2 p.m.; Guests of honor include A. B. Graham, John W. Scholl, George Harrison Shull, and Aaron Franklin Shull. Guest speakers are Dr. William E. Smith and Attorney John B. McGrew.	No
2C	Tecumseh Treaty Site Bone of Contention for Historians of Clark County	No
2C	City's 'Blood Ties' Lead to Kentucky - Not Mayflower	No
2C	Historical Landmarks are Fading in County - Few know about or the location of New Boston and early Springfield stockades or blockhouses.	No
2C	George Rogers Clark's Own Account Shed Light on the Battle of Piqua; lost manuscripts found in 1920s at University of Wisconsin	Yes, of CCHS curator William F. Lohnes
2C	Advertisements on this page: Meek's Sporting Goods, Springfield Metallic Casket Company, Jackson-Lytle Funeral Home, and Fink & Heine Company	No
3C	Historians Differ on Clark County's First Settlement - 1790 or 1796?	Yes, plaque acknowledging James Demint's first cabin site
3C	Company of Revolutionaries Resting in Old Columbia St. Cemetery	No
3C	Advertisements on this page: The William Bayley Co., AAA Springfield Automobile Club, and First National Bank	No

4C	Ohio is a great place for aspiring writers of Romantic Pioneers	Yes
4C	James Demint said one black walnut tree cut to make way for the Northern School was so thick he had to cut steps to reach the center.	No
4C	Soldiers Mound in Ferncliff Cemetery was site of prehistoric burial mound	No
4C	Advertisements on this page: Huonker and Hartmann, Inc., International Harvester, and Freking's	Sketch of Pioneer looking over Wagon at graves and airplane flying above
5C	Four-Foot Snowfall in County Area Told by Indian Captive	No
5C	Visit to Musuem will Follow Memorial Hall program	Yes
5C	General Haldiman Papers Believed to Contain Data on Local Area	No
5C	Society' in 1951 Springfield is not as exclusive as it was the late 1800s and early 1900s	No
5C	Recorded History of County of Pioneer Scarce - Some existing histories are by R. C. Woodward (sketch), Beers, Judge William Rockel, and Dr. B. F. Prince of Wittenberg College	No
5C	Advertisements on this page: Austin Richards Memorial Home, Edward Wren Store, Beckley & Myers, and Agaloy Tubing Coompany	No
6C	City's First Hotel Built in 1801 by Griffith Foos and other City Hotels histories	No
6C	Orton G. Rust, president of CCHS, studies journal with proceedings of Dayton and Mad River Turnpike Co.	Yes

6C	First Mrs. Demint believed to be first death in Springfield in 1803	No
6C	Daniel Boone May Have Hunted Over Site of Springfield	No
6C	Advertisements on this page: McCulloch's, The Harvard, and the Oliver Corporation	No
7C	Springfield had Station on Underground Railroad; Slaves Arrived by 2 Routes	No
7C	Principal Speakers at Sesquicentennial: John B. McGrew and Dr. William E. Smith	Yes
7C	George Rogers Clark in later years compared to George Washington - Brief article called "Effect of Age Shown"	No
7C	10,000 'Braves' Reported in Ohio Region in 1779	No
7C	Local Indians Probably Freed Captives in 1764	No
7C	Robert Rennick, one of City's Settlers, owned land with James Demint. He owned west end and built a mill on Buck Creek, just below where Ferncliff Cemetery is today	No
7C	Advertisements on this page: W. T. Smith Co., Wagners Service Inc., Springfield Builders Supply and Lumber Co., and The Savings Society.	No
8C	Turnersville - Village Planned at Spfld Site Six Years Before Founding by Demint	No
8C	Plug Hat Political Brigade was Popular in City until McKinley was nominated in 1896	No

8C	Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Martin with Clark County historic books: Biographical Record of Clark County, History of Clark County 1851, The Great Seal of the State of Ohio 1802, and Springfield City Directory 1863-64.	Yes
8C	Yurbs' and Whisky Potion Basis of Early Medicinal Treatment in Springfield	No
8C	Highway Entry to City was political - between Demint's Main St. (now Columbia) or Foos's South St. (now Main)	No
8C	Simon Girty's Role in Battle of Piqua is often undermined	No
8C	Charles Dickens Probably Crossed Springfield in His Ohio Journey	No
8C	Many Early Names for 'Ohio'	No
8C	Advertisements on this page: Sterling Jewelry Co., Littleton Funeral Home, and Steel Products Engineering Co.	Yes, of an unnamed married couple and of Steel Products Engineering Co.
9C	Early Clark County had a trio of eccentric homeless people known as "The Immortal J.N.", "Old Eli" and "Nancy Sherwin"	No
9C	To Be Honored at Memorial Hall Sesquicentennial Event: A. Franklin Shull, John W. Scholl, George H. Shull, and A. B. Graham	Yes, of the four men
9C	List of trees and shrubs native to Clark County	No
9C	Tecumseh Among 'Most Remarkable' Military Geniuses	No
9C	Early Ohioans Came from South and Mid-Atlantic States	No
9C	Mad River Had Greater Flow in Early Days	No
9C	How the Word 'Turnpike' Came About	No

9C	Advertisements for this page: The Bauer Bros. Co. and the Guardian Bank	No
10C	Spfld Resident Mrs. James Oliver describes early days in 'Owltown' (near Tremont City)	Yes, of Mrs. James Oliver
10C	Many Revolutionary War Soldiers Died Here - Columbia St. - William McIntire, John Bancroft, Elijah Beardsley, Cornelius Toland, James Kelley, Lieut. James Christie, George McCleave; Greenmount - Merrifield Victory; Ferncliff - Robert Lane and Capt. Richard Bacon; Asbury Chapel - Lieut. Henry Dawson, John Dawson, William Baird, Jacob Ellsworth; Fletcher Chapel - John S. Craig, John S. Farnham, Timothy Bayley, William Poole; Vale Cemetery - Isaac Wilson, Thomas Nawman; Vanderburg farm - Peter Smith; Lamme farm - James Lamme; Tuttle farm - Sylvanus Tuttle; South Charleston - Jacob Davison, Frederick Brown, George Hempleman; Libson - Steve Harriman, Ebenezer and John Albin; Garlough - Benjamin Jones, John Henry Garlough, Henry Garlough; Honey Creek - Jeremiah Priest; Myers Cemetery - Samuel Lippincott, John Kellar, Jacob Ebersole; Enon - Melyn Baker, Benjamin Bridge, James Calloway; by Columbus Rd. - Simeon Bardwell; Vale - William Rodgers; Gen. Keifer was acquainted with Abraham Rust (German Twp) William Holmes (Bethel Twp) and Andrew Pinneo (Spfld Twp)	No
10C	RCA's silent laboratory is making noises	No

10C	Advertisements on this page: McKenzie Lumber and Coal Co., Borden's, and Robbins & Myers, Inc.	No
10C	Formal Attire Only at British Strand Hotel	No
10C	Three Rules for Public Speaking	No
11C	New Military Group Alarms West Germany	No
11C	Springfield Musicians Union Will Observe 50th Anniversary on October 7th	Yes
11C	Careful Thief Replaces Door Panel in Winnipeg	No
11C	Chinese Reds Claim Americans Stole 'Peking Man's bones	No
11C	Hotel manager in St. Louis serves veterans of four wars (Spanish-America, WWI, WWII, Kora)	No
11C	Advertisements for this page: Hadley's and Nisley's Fine Footwear	Yes, of Nisley's in 1883
12C	Historical Society Preserves Relics of Early City and County	No
12C	Advertisements for this page: Brain Lumber Co. and People's Outfitting Co.	No
13C	Hokum' and George Rogers Clark Played Important Role in Conquest of Northwest Territory	No
13C	Records of Clark County Retained Since 1818	No
13C	Log House Served as Fort in Early Springfield Times	No
13C	Spfld Once Part of Hamilton County	No
13C	Advertisements on this page include: Yost Superior Co., Wallace & Company Insurance, Lee's Furniture Store, and Kroger	Yes, of Kroger and Lee's Furniture
14C	Third Spfld Postmaster, Peter Sprigman, was Early Ohio Personage	No

14C	Layman Max Ellis of Centerville read Rev. C. L. Bartholomew's sermons while his voice was recovering	No
14C	Lamp Trends for Good Lighting and Decoration - Philidelphia	No
14C	Montreal citizens blamed for failing to cooperate with police	No
14C	In Frankfurt, 250,000 gift parcels are given to Germany every month	No
14C	Advertisements on this page: Springfield City Lines Inc., Hofman-Green Jewelers, and The National Supply Co.	No
15C	Mirrors Add Sparkle and Style to Rooms	No
15C	Colonial Willamsburg, VA, reaches Quarter-Century Mark in Reliving History	No
15C	Yacht Captain Faces Trinidad Smuggling Count	No
15C	Extension of Living Room is Suggested	No
15C	Mast-Foos Manufacturing Co., Schaefer's Bread, and Schmidt Drugs, Inc.	No
16C	Living Room of Home is Pivotal Point of Attraction	No
16C	Planning of Household Activities Requires Ingenuity of Executive	No
16C	Smuggling of Dollar Bloc Goods Brings Huge Profits in Orient	No
16C	U.S. Weather Bureau and Navy officials plot Hurricane Courses	Yes
16C	Dayton Woman Forges Sales Slip to Buy a Bible	No

16C	Advertisements on this page: Fireoved & McCann Pharmacy, M&M Federal Savings & Loan Association, and B&S Radio & Television Co.	No
17C	Ominous Threat from East' Hangs Over Europe according to Local Pastor	No
17C	Cotton Harvesting in Egypt - Little Changed in 4,000 Years	Yes
17C	Kitchens Now Using Chrome Furniture	No
17C	Advertisements on this page: Crist-Kissell Co., James Leffel & Co., Montgomery Ward, and Bennett Printing and Stationery	Yes, of Leffel's original and current plants
18C	Marines Seeking More Draftees in Latest Call	No
18C	Domestic Quarrel Causes Emergency Run	No
18C	City Hospital Trustees Have Diversified Knowledge	Yes
18C	John Purvis, 45-year-old, Walks Out of Hospital Carrying Bullet in Right Hip	No
18C	$40 cash missing with Articles Reported Stolen Saturday from H.A. Kubic Residence	No
18C	Lewis L. and Fern M. Davis File Divorce Actions	No
18C	Advertisements on this page: Hugel and Heiserman, Buffalo Springfield, Lagonda National Bank, Bancroft's, and P. Slacks Sons	No