

The Hawkins Collection ranges between the years of 1862 and 1886. The amount of material making up the Hawkins collection is fairly small but covers a wide variety of years. Some during the war and some once Hawkins was out of the war. The Collection has been broken up into three series.

Series 1: Musical books and papers

Series 2: Newspaper articles

Series 3: Letters

There are no restrictions on the use of this collection

Scope and Content Note

The Hawkins Collection is made up of seven folders involving Hawkins involvement in the Cadet band during the Civil War. It also documents his own band, which he played in after the war was over. There are three series that range from the years of 1862 and 1886.

Series 1 consists of three folders and are based on Hawkins musical collection. There are copies of songs and as instructional booklet of army regulations while playing the drums, the fife or the bugle

Series 2 has two folders in it, these folders are articles about Hawkins band both during the civil war and after the civil war. Papers include a list of all who participated in the band as well as a newspaper article from their performances.

Series 3 consists of two folders of letters from various places during the Civil War. For instance there are some letters from southern soldiers, which were confiscated during the Civil War as well as orders given to the 110th O.V.I

Box and Folder Listing

Series	File	Description
1	1	Army regulations for Drum, Fife and Bugle 1862
	2	“Old Tom” song - 2 copies
	3	Book of Proverbs
2	1	Cadet Band newspaper article 1886
	2	Band papers and articles
3	1	Southern letters confiscated during the Civil War
	2	Letters of orders pertaining to the 110 th O.V.I